DEC. 1 EVENT REMEMBERS LAURA MEHTERIAN

Laura Mehterian was a vivacious and very special lady to the SCV Historical Society for many years, and to the other community organizations she touched. Laura succumbed to cancer earlier this month, and we'll be celebrating her life and memory at the Saugus Train Station in Heritage Junction, Newhall, from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. this Saturday, Dec. 1. All friends are invited; no RSVP necessary.

HOLIDAY OPEN HOUSE AT THE TRAIN STATION

The SCV Historical Society will hold its annual Christmas Open House at the Saugus Train Station in Heritage Junction on Sunday, Dec. 9. The day begins with the Old Town Newhall Association's toy parade for children, starting at 11 a.m. on Newhall Avenue and ending at Hart Park. Then it's on to Heritage Junction at noon for yummy treats, entertainment from two high school choirs, a Blessing of the Animals and the dedication of the newly restored Ramona Chapel, featuring the wonderful craftsmanship of project leader Allan Howe.

TRIVIA ANSWER

Last time we asked what you call a 125th anniversary. After all, we celebrated the 125th anniversary of Lang Station and Mentryville this year; we knew 100 years is a centennial and 150 years is a sesquicentennial – but what's 125 years? Society member Dee Winsman came up with the answer: It's a quasiquicentennial. Say THAT three times fast.

NATIVE AMERICANS MOVING INTO PARDEE HOUSE

The SCV Historical Society has established an exciting new partnership with the San Fernando Band of Mission Indians, which represents the local Native American families from the Santa Clarita and Antelope valleys. The Society is providing office space to the Tribal Council, and in return the organization is providing skilled crafts people to help the Society complete our top capital project – the transformation of the Pardee House into our permanent museum and visitors center. Work is well under way, and we're looking forward to developing new educational projects together in the coming year. Stay tuned.
